HARRY WEATHERHOLT MARRIES MISS HARRIS

Miss Willie Harris, Pretty Girl of Central City Becomes the Bride of One of Cloverport's Most Popular Young Men

WEDDING SURPRISE FRIENDS

Miss Willie Harris and Mr. Harry Weatherholt were married in Evansville a week ago today and arrived here Friday night and stayed until Monday afternoon as guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Weatherholt, of this city.

Although the family knew of the engagement, the marriage was a complete surprise to Mr. Weatherholt's many friends in Cloverport and Breckenridge county.

The bride is the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Harris, of Central City, and her lovely personality won her friends immediately here. The groom is one of Cloverport's most popular young society men and until four months ago has always lived here and held a position as mechanical engineer with the Henderson Route.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatherholt were guests of honor at a beautiful dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Phelps Saturday evening and Sunday they were delightfully entertained at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Weatherholt.

The groom's parents gave them a reception on their arrival Friday night. The young couple will make their home in Central City.

West-Whitworth

A wedding of much interest to the people of Breckenridge was that which was solemnized Tuesday, February 28 in Owensboro, when Mrs. Margaret West became the wife of J. J. Whitworth.

Rev. E. B. English performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and loved ones, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beauchamp, the latter being the groom's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Head, formerly of Breckenridge, were among the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth will make their home near Lodi, where he is a prosperous farmer.

Gone But Not Forgotten

John Roland, the little three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Bryant, died January 31 of diphtheria at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Will Jolly at Sample, under whose watchful care he had been since the death of his mother a year ago. The memorial will be the first Sunday in April.

"Dear little hands, I miss them so; All through the day, where ever I go; All through the night, how lonely it seems, For no little hand wake me out of my dreams; I miss them all through the weary hours; Miss them as others miss sunshine and flowers; Day-time or night-time, wherever I go; Dear little hands, I miss them so."

Former Breckenridge Girl as Interesting Life.

Miss Emma A. Moseley, of Stephensport, a bright teacher under a former administration of Supt. Driskell, is remembered by many readers of the News as a young lady of unusual intelligence with promise of literary and musical success. It will interest her Kentucky friends to recall that she married a Mr. Lampe, Vice Consul of the Mexican Government, and stationed at that time in St. Louis. Since then they have lived in or near the Mexican Capitol, where he has been editor of a newspaper. At present he has charge of the Loreone Enterprise, a money making publication. Mr. and Mrs. Lampe recently returned from a European tour. They saw the Passion Play while abroad. Mrs. Lampe has contributed to the "American History and Encyclopedia of Music" an article on "Mexican Music" in which she shows a breadth of musical information which comes only from much historical research.

The City Council

The City Council met in regular session Monday night, Mayor Barry presiding. A petition was presented, signed by a few citizens living on lower Wall Street, requesting the members of the council to oppose the erection of a blacksmith shop in that vicinity. The matter was passed for future investigation. The hog ordinance, and the dog tax came up for discussion, and it was the sense of the council that those who were delinquent on the dog tax should be prosecuted under the ordinance if they did not come up and settle at once. They also intimated that there would likely be a clean sweep of the hog pens in the corporation about May 1st.
